Farm Bureau Is Behind New Tax

LOUISVILLE (UPI) — The Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation included a 3 per cent sales tax in its proposed legislative program at the closing session of its 40th annual state convention Wednesday.

The farm organization, which long has favored a sales tax, approved a resolution providing for the tax. It marked the first time the farm group has specified the amount of the proposed tax it would like to see passed by the General Assembly.

The resolution reads:

"In view of the fact that the veterans bonus amendment passed at the recent general election, the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation goes on record as favoring the enactment of a general retail sales tax of not less than 3 per cent.

"However, all tax receipts in excess of those deemed necessary to retire the veterans bonus issue go into the general revenue fund to improve our educational and other state services.

"However, we feel that if a general sales tax is enacted and strict economy in government is practiced, sufficient funds should be made available to permit a lowering, modifying or abolishing of some of our existing taxes," the resolution continued.

Murray Children Exchange Art With Other Nations

Children in Murray Schools have been participating for several years in a project known as Art for World Friendship. Through this program, children in Murray draw pictures which are sent to other parts of the world and pictures from foreign children are sent to Murray. Every child who draws a picture receives one in return, drawn by a child of his own age from another land. Both children and teachers have enjoyed the project.

According to Mrs. E. J. Steyer, local director of the plan, "Art for World Friendship" began in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, in 1946 as a local project undertaken by a few members of the Women's International League for Peace.

Now fourteen years later, Art for World Friendship is still expanding the horizons of thousands of children. It has been enthusiastically received by the Embassies of Washington. It is a part of the educational system of Denmark, Norway, Italy, India, Israel and Holland. Honorary sponsors include such people as Emily Green Balch (winner of the 1946 Nobel Peace Prize), Dr. Ralph Bunche, Dr. Frank P. Graham, Charles P. Romulo (of the Philippines), Dr. Henri Bonet (of France) and Madame Vihaya Lakshmi Pandit, sister of the prime minister Nehru of India.

The children of Murray are enjoying the contacts made with other children around the world and are participating in a program which is striving to encourage lasting world peace.

Evansville Is Last Home For Murray

The winless Murray State College Thoroughbred will take on the Evansville College Aces here Saturday at 1:30 p. m. and should have their best chance of the season to win a game. The game will be the feature of high school day on the campus.

Captain Jim Cullinan reports that the Aces will be the first team the Racers have played that have not had a large weight advantage. "However," he said, "they're a good team with lots of speed, a strong running attack, and a better than average passing game, and the three games they've lost have been close ones to good teams."

The Aces opened the season with wins over Southern Illinois, Indiana State, Valparaiso, and Ball State; lost to Bradley; defeated DePaul; and then lost to Butler and St. Joseph's. Saturday's game will be their last of the season.

Murray has lost eight straight to East Tennessee, Tennessee Tech, Eastern Kentucky, Louisville, Morehead, Tennessee Tech, Arkansas State, and Middle Tennessee.

The major Evansville threat is backfield Wally Shatowski, but he gets lots of help from halfback Jim Zepchenko and a passing attack from quarterback Richard Seib to end Larry Gates.

Two Racer first stringers guard Red Smith and quarterback Buddy Parker, will sit out the game, and a third, Bob Burton, may be out of action. Smith injured a knee against Middle Tennessee, Parker wrenched a knee against Arkansas State and will be out for the season, and Burton has a shoulder separation and a muscle injury.

Probable starters for Murray include: LE, Jasowski; LT, Willes; LG, Burton; C, Taylor; RG, Suter; RT, Daniels; RE, Ray; QB, Harper; LH, Tison or Stout; RB, Carman, and FB, Morris.

Cranberry Chemical No Harm To Human Beings Says Chemist

By BART KINCH
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — The chemist whose laboratory experiments disclosed that a weed killer used on some cranberry crops produced cancer in rats said Wednesday night the tainted berries were not dangerous to humans.

Dr. Boyd Shaffer, a toxicologist for the American Cyanamid Co., said his experiments with aminotriazole produced cancer in rats only after "continued administration over the lifetime of the rats at a relatively high dosage."

He said similar experiments with dogs produced no cancer.

"If you ask me whether the very small amount of residue present (in the tainted cranberries) is dangerous to people, I steadfastly maintain the answer is not," he said.

Shaffer said a human "would have to eat 15,000 pounds of cranberries a day for many years" before he would suffer any ill effect from consumption of the chemical residue.

The McGraw-Hill Chemical Week in an editorial prepared for the Nov. 28 issue supported Shaffer's view.

The magazine said a person would have to eat large amounts of the berries every day for more than 20 years to reach the feeding-test levels at which the weed killer first proved harmful.

"And nobody, but nobody, eats that many cranberries," Chemical Week added.

Professor Robert D. Sweet of Cornell University also debunked reports that the tainted berries might be dangerous to humans.

"As far as the danger is concerned," Sweet said, "I would rather take my chances with cranberries than with smoke cigarettes."

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Arthur S. Flemming started the controversy Monday when he warned that a portion of the Washington and Oregon crops had been contaminated by the weed killer.

Some food chains and grocers across the nation withdrew their stocks from public sale.

Wednesday the Navy ordered its commands at home and abroad to halt serving the berries if they came from One-on or Washington. The Army and Air Force were expected to follow suit.

Proud Watutsi Engaged In Battle To Maintain Status

EDITOR'S NOTE: Robert Muesel of the London UPI bureau has spent some time with the Watutsi tribe in Africa, now engaged in a battle of survival with the Bahutusi who rose from serfdom to kill hundreds of their giant masters. In the following dispatch he tells of their rise to new god-like status and their fall.

By ROBERT MUSEL
United Press International

LONDON (UPI) — A David and Goliath war is being fought in Ruanda-Urundi, next door to the Belgian Congo, and what is dying with the Watutsi warriors is the legend of their invincibility.

The Bahutusi, who are a people of medium height, are killing off their masters of 300 years—the giant Watutsi, one of the strangest and most fascinating tribes on earth.

I spent some time among them in one of their capital towns, Astrida, where the Watutsi prefer that spelling to the Americanized Watutsi—have ruled for three centuries over the cool hills of their beautiful land.

Legend Protects Them
They came down out of Egypt or Ethiopia centuries ago, bringing with them the lyre-horned cattle exactly like those depicted on ancient Egyptian tombs. And their legend of invincibility had protected them ever since.

Without really fighting a battle the skinny giants, many of them seven feet and over, made slaves of the pygmy Batwas four feet high and subject peoples of the Bahutusi.

They have brought in the pygmies and their bloodlines and possessed darts to aid them in their battle for survival.

The Watutsi are people of tremendous presence. Their faces are delicately chiseled, their swaying walk gracefully impress-

Jet Bombers To Fly Low Missions Over Murray

Strategic Air Command B-47 and B-52 jet bombers will begin flying low-level missions over Murray within the next few weeks, General Thomas S. Power, SAC Commander in Chief, announced today.

The mammoth jet bombers will fly both day and night missions in all types of weather, General Power said. This low-level flying will increase SAC's combat crew proficiency, enabling the crews to perform any bombing tactic in any type of weather, day or night, the general added.

Murray is along one of seven air corridors recently allocated by the Federal Aviation Agency for use by SAC in its low-level training, General Power explained. Both the six-jet B-47s and the eight jet B-52s will fly at altitudes of 1,000 feet above highest point along their routes.

The route starts a few miles northeast of Savannah, Tenn., moving northward to Murray, Ky., where it turns westward. After a northward bend to avoid Springfield, Mo., the route is terminated at a point between Joplin, Mo., and Picher, Okla., General Power emphasized that neither bomber will fly faster than the speed of sound, so local residents will not hear sonic booms. "In fact," he added "SAC will do everything to cause as little annoyance as possible to citizens along the route."

"At the same time," he continued, "We hope everyone will realize the necessity for training our crews under all types of situations. In every case, the safety of local residents and of our crews will be the paramount factor in our planning." General Power concluded.

YOUNG FAMILY

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (UPI) — Members of four generations of a Marin County family met here Wednesday for a happy get-together and the oldest member was only 47 years old.

The occasion was an official welcome to the latest addition, nine-day-old Thomas Preston Jr. His mother, Mrs. Wanda Jean Preston, reached her 14th birthday only last May 25.

The child's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Beatrice Weisner, is a 31-year-old attractive brunette and Tommy's great-grandmother, Mrs. Isabel Costa, is a youngish 47.

Early motherhood seems to run in the family. Mrs. Costa was a mother at 16 and Mrs. Weisner became a mother at 15.

Hand Grenade Kills Woman

NEW YORK (UPI) — A Staten Island housewife without "an enemy in the world" died today, her legs blown off and her body riddled with shrapnel from a booby-trap explosion Tuesday night.

Mrs. Concetta Giarletta, 41, was blasted by a hand grenade as she opened the garage door for her husband, Frank, 50. She took the full force of the blast and apparently shielded him from injury.

Doctors at St. Vincent's Hospital worked to save her life. She had two operations and several blood transfusions. She died at 3:10 a. m. after struggling more than 30 hours for life.

Police were checking a military hand grenade fragment with a serial number on it found near the garage. It was their only clue to the bombing.

The grenade, with the pin pulled, apparently had been struck under the door which armed it for explosion in three seconds after the door was raised.

Police said such use was an old Army trick learned in World War II and known to thousands of ex-G.I.s.

Rabbit And Quail Hunters Should Be Happy At Prospects

FRANKFORT, KY. — Prospects were never brighter for the hunters of rabbit, quail, and grouse. So says the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources following statewide population studies on these various species of wildlife.

Trends on all three species have been upward almost every section of the state, the surveys show, and barring unfavorable hunting weather, there is little doubt in the minds of the conductors of the surveys or the farmers that better gills will be the rule rather than the exception this year.

Following a disappointing kill of rabbits last year, the cottontail hunters for this season are enthusiastic about the prospects. Their enthusiasm is well founded, says the Department. Biologists and field men have determined that the early crop of rabbits was exceedingly good, and the mortality rate was low. The same was determined for the fall crop. It was heavy and fairly late, but not late enough for inclement weather to interfere. In fact, in the past few weeks more young rabbits have been sighted than for many years and undoubtedly many rabbits killed this season will not be full grown.

The outlook for rabbits is good in all sections of the state, the surveys show. To be sure more rabbits will be found in one section than another, which is customary, but every section of the state shows a greater population than previously. Even though the survey showed the kill of rabbits for last season to be off by about 30 per cent, the average hunter bagged 11 rabbits. With the greater population indicated for this year that average kill should be considerably increased. By sections the average kill for last season was as follows: Eastern, slightly over eight; Bluegrass, 13; Central, 12 and Western, 11.

Quail hunters last year had a good season with the statewide average kill being 25 bobwhites. The population was good for that season, but all indications are that the supply of quail this year is greater than for many years. A good early hatch of quail was reported in all sections of the state. Also late hatches were extremely good and the mortality rate was very low. Biologists and other field men report that extremely large coveys were reared this year and groups of 25 or not uncommon. Early season counts in the field indicated a large holdover crop of breeding stock and weather conditions have been ideal in most sections of the state for the rapid growth of the young birds. Biologists also believe that many adult birds produced at least two good coveys of quail this season. The average hunter kill by sections last year, the survey shows, was 18 plus in the Eastern area; 19 in the Bluegrass area; 26 in the Central area and 34 in the Western part of the state. All hunters this year are asked to return birds found on quail to the Game Division, Dept. of Fish and Wildlife Resources, Frankfort, Kentucky, since the Department, in cooperation with the sportsmen clubs has banded all pen-

Wrestling At Douglas High Tomorrow

Friday night, Nov. 13, 8-10 p.m. at Douglas High School Gym, Murray, Ky. Matchmaker Nick Gulas has signed an outstanding all-star wrestling card to be sponsored by the Junior Class.

Two outstanding ladies have been signed, Miss Shirley Aitken against Miss Cora Combs. Miss Aitken is always on the go, and the attractive brunette turns on the speed from start to finish in a match. She is sensational and returns to every town by popular demand to show her great wrestling style and ability. To see Miss Aitken in action once, you will want to see her again and again.

Miss Combs has red hair, fair complexion, and is one of the most attractive girls in the business. Before taking up professional wrestling — she was a singer. Being athletically inclined she began training for a wrestler and after many years in the business, she today is one of the top ten girls in the nation. Several years ago she won the Southern Lady Championship.

Active and plenty of it in this 2 out of 3 fall — 1 hour battle. For the men's main event, Sonny Fargo, one of the fabulous Fargo Bros., has been signed to meet the popular Irish Mike Clancy in the main event on this big card. Sonny is one of the roughest and toughest mat stars in the game and used unorthodox tactics stopping at nothing to win.

Clancy, the former World Junior Heavyweight Champion, prefers to wrestle scientifically and to abide by the rules, but can dish out as well as take rough treatment. Clancy and Sonny have been at each others' throat for some time, and in the past, their matches have ended in near riots. This match will be no exception, and the fans

Almo And Kirksey Are Only Teams With Unmarred Record

After almost three weeks of round ball activity by Calloway County quintets, Almo and Kirksey are the only clubs with an unmarred record. Both teams have won two games. College High and New Concord each has played three games winning two and losing one.

The Hazel Lions have split four games for a .500 average and the Lynn Grove Wildcats have yet to register a win losing five straight. Thomas Lamb, big 6-5 Almo Warrior center, has the highest per game average to date with an even 24 points. Danny Edwards of Kirksey is just a shade off the lead setting pace with 21.5 for second place. Coleman Reeder, Kirksey pivot man, has the third highest average with 19 points. Kirksey dominates the top five scoring standings with three men in the top bracket. Mickey Smith is in fifth place with a 15.5 posting. Jerry Wallace who holds the honor of having the greatest single game point total at 32, is in fourth place. The College High School star has a 16.6 average.

Chamberlain Boosts The Warriors On

United Press International
With Chamberlain is providing the Philadelphia Warriors with a victory in six starts Tuesday night when he tipped in the deciding basket with 30 seconds remaining to defeat the New York Knickerbockers, 125-123.

In other league action, Boston beat Detroit, 128, 109, and the Hawks whipped Minneapolis, 134-105, in a doubleheader at St. Louis.

Chamberlain, moving at a pace that could eclipse the rookie scoring record set by Elgin Baylor of Minneapolis last season, poured in 39 points and grabbed 43 rebounds, breaking his own club record for retrievers.

The former Kansas University All-American now has the best scoring average in the NBA at 36.9 points a game and has forged ahead of Boston's Bill Russell in rebounds.

In 1958, 4,400 children under the age of 15 were killed in traffic accidents in the United States.

A striking profile for the 1960 Lincoln is the result of a completely redesigned roof which gives the car a more formal look. The different shaped rear window has 177 additional square inches of glass area for improved rearward visibility. Inside, the instrument panel has been completely restyled to give the car a precision look. A smoother ride and greater handling ease are the result of a new Hotchkiss rear suspension with leaf springs. In addition to the Lincoln four-door landau (shown above) there is a two-door hardtop and a four-door sedan in the Lincoln and Premiere series.

Backstairs At The Whitehouse

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter
WASHINGTON (AP) — Backstairs at the White House: President Eisenhower does not have to go out and buy his own magazines, but nevertheless, he's thirty about them these days.

Before leaving Walter Reed Army Medical Center last week after his annual checkup, the president carefully packed two current weeklies he had been reading in his overnight bag along with his pajamas and shaving gear.

The bag was sent down to the president's limousine a few minutes before Eisenhower departed. At the last minute, the president sent a hospital orderly and secret service agent to the car to open the bag and retrieve the magazines.

The president then took them to the hospital room of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and said, "here's something for you to read."

Benson was in the hospital for treatment of an inflamed gall bladder.

The ladies have been somewhat wary of kicking up any public storm about getting into two other types of stag dinners for the press. There has been no known demand for female admission to the Grid-Iron Dinners (most of the girls' bosses are members or guests) and Eisenhower seems to be under no pressure to include women reporters at private dinners he has given for the press.

The president has been told that the ladies do not like being excluded from press affairs which he attends, but his position has been that he's the guest, not the host.

As for stag dinners in the White House, he regards that as entirely his own business. One sure way to stay off of an Eisenhower guest list is to make an incident of not being invited. A number of prominent Americans know this to their regret.

Kirksey Rt. 2

Mr. and Mrs. Hastin Wright and son, Raymond of Stella went Friday to Granite City, Ill., to visit Hastin's sister, Mrs. Tolbert Smith and family.

Mrs. Bettie Bridges and Mrs. Thine Edwards visited Mrs. Nell Rhea Friday afternoon.

Death has saddened another home after the passing of Mrs. Claude Cunningham who passed away on October 25 at her home on Murray Route 2, near Kirksey. Our sympathy goes to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Hollie McCallon of near Stella shut the car door in her finger and hurt it real bad.

Mrs. Colon Jones who lives about two miles North West of Kirksey spent the day last Tuesday with her cousin Cara Carnell.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Dornell on the arrival of a son, born October 22, at the Murray Hospital. They named him Adam Gale. She is their first child.

Mrs. Tyner Noel of Kirksey Route two who has been in the Murray Hospital for several days is able to come home and is feeling some better.

Mr. and Mrs. Eual Donahoo of near Calvert City visited her father, Mr. Lee Wicker and a sister, Mrs. Floette Parker a few days ago.

There was a Halloween party at the Kirksey High School Friday and a large crowd attended and all had lots of fun.

Floette Parker has had the pleasure of her brother and family of Detroit to visit her recently.

There was a home coming at the Kirksey Methodist Church Sunday, Nov. 1. Preaching in the morning, dinner at noon, and singing in the afternoon. A large crowd attended.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Billie Smith on the arrival of their new daughter, Bobbie Ann, born at the Murray Hospital a few days ago.

She is their second child.

May it please your Majesty to remember that the church is an anvil which has worn out many hammers.

Lazy, Daisy.
